Ce!ebrate

What if... we celebrate? Celebrate the good things that God is doing at SCM; Celebrate the good things God is doing in Spring City; Celebrate the good things God is doing in our homes; Celebrate the good things God is about to do. Celebrate!

This month we are going to be looking at four questions: What if we celebrate? What if we humble ourselves and pray? What if we seek God first? What if we do something extraordinary? We start by celebrating as an act of praise, because God inhabits our praise. Psalm 9:1-2 says, "I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all the marvelous things you have done.. I will be filled with joy because of you. I will sing praises to your name, O Most High." We cannot ask God for anything without first acknowledging what God has already done for us.

God has set us free from sin and death, giving us not just eternal life, but new life right here right now. God calls us to be His partners in building His kingdom, He calls us children; He calls us beloved. Those are reasons to celebrate. I celebrate our MidSouth Convening Annual Conference and what God is doing through the Global Methodist Church. I celebrate the new opportunities we have in ministry. I celebrate you: the faithful who have built this church and supported it through all the years, and our new members as well. I celebrate your sacrifice in giving to the Faith Future and Finance campaign and our purchase of Our Great Redeemer's Praise hymnals. I'm thankful for so many things we are experiencing, and I'm sure you are too.

During the month of October we will have an opportunity to express our gratitude. We will have Post-It Note pads available for everyone that says, "Ce!ebrate" on them. Use these around our facility (or even at home) to post notes of gratitude on things that your are thankful for or that remind you of something intangible that you want to celebrate.

Come on, SCM, What if we Celebrate?
