A Note from Pastor Dave...

SCM has been blessed over the last 3 ½ years to have Janie Tallent as our administrative assistant. She has been diligent, thorough, creative, and friendly through all that we've done including paying attention to the details of our disaffiliation process. Janie will be leaving SCM to celebrate being a full-time mom. We wish her well and thank her for her service to SCM.

In April we will welcome April Gilley to the office as our administrative assistant.

Happy Anniversary!

SCM,

After much prayer, I have decided to stay at home with my son full-time. This is definitely a bitter-sweet decision; I have truly loved working for this church. This has been far more than just a job to me—I have been blessed by the people here in so many ways. When I started in 2020, Sharon Brown told me that she knew I would come to love you all, “they’ll grow on you,” she said. Well, she was certainly right, and I know the person that will step into my place will soon love you as much as I do.

May the Lord continue to bless and keep you,

Janie Tallent

Hiwassee River Heritage Center

Sign Up in the Fellowship Hall

Discover a compelling story of human spirit and tragic sacrifice. The banks of the Hiwassee River were witness to nationally significant history involving the Trail of Tears and the Civil War. Present-day Charleston was once the site of the federal Indian Agency and eventually Fort Cass, the U.S. military headquarters for the entire Cherokee removal. The Hiwassee River was a pivotal crossing for troop movement in the Civil War and several officers on both sides of the conflict made Charleston a stop in their operations. Discover these important stories and more at this recently expanded interpretive center, designated by the National Park Service as a certified site on the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail.

Groups Around the Church

The SCM Chancel Choir helps lead us in worship every Sunday and sings a beautiful choral anthem. Each year they present a Christmas Cantata that they begin practicing for in the fall, and it is a much-anticipated presentation each Christmas season. They practice Wednesdays at 6:00 in the choir room, and they would love to have you!
